BURNING HEARTS—LIVES AFLAME _____ Pastor Bill Stonebraker

"As [Paul] was discussing righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix became frightened and said, 'Go away for the present, and when I find time [a convenient time], I will summon you.'" (Acts 24:25)

There is never a convenient time to master your passions (exercise self-control). Your flesh will never give you a convenient time. It is a choice. It is a choice you make to walk in the Spirit; a choice you make to not spend money you don't have, not to take that drink or drug, not to cheat on your spouse, not to indulge your anger, etc.

Proverbs 16:32 says, "He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit, than he who captures a city." If you rule your spirit, if you are self-controlled, you are better than those perceived as powerful and successful. You may conquer Wall Street, you may conquer Hollywood, you may conquer Washington, but if you are one who rules your spirit, if you have self-control, you are better than all of them. That is the powerful walk of the spirit.
